SUMMER COMPOSITION CAMP!

In this two-week class, students will learn the basics of composition and compose short solo pieces for their instrument.

At the end of camp, students will then record themselves performing their works, which will be shared on the AIM website and YouTube channel.

SUMMER THEORY

During theory classes, students will examine what exactly makes music work and what makes music sound the way it does. These classes can help with preparation for the Trinity College Theory Exams! DEADLINE EXTENDED TO FRIDAY, 6/3!
