Meet Scott!

Scott Alexander is a professional violinist and violist who has taught hundreds of private students over the past 10 years in Texas. He studied at the University of North Texas with Dr. Susan Dubois, who ascribes to the “Karen Tuttle” technique. This technique specializes in how we play our instruments and how to play without pain.

When he is not teaching, Scott plays for weddings and private events and travels all over Texas and New Mexico performing with various orchestras and chamber ensembles. He has performed with noted artists such as IL DIVO and The Transiberian Orchestra.

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who supported Jennifer and her students going to London by purchasing a bag (or more than one bag) of delicious Cornivore Popcorn! We raised $792 dollars! They've all been working SO hard on their pieces and are just about performance ready! In fact, if you attend the Summer Recital on Sunday (6/4), you'll get to see their performances before their big London debut!
